In the Year A. L. 5798. A. D. 1798.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that on application of the Most Worshipful WILLIAM R. DAVIE, Grand Master, to the Legislature of North Carolina, holden in the city of Raleigh, in November, A. D. 1797, they were pleased to grant to him, and the fraternity of our Craft in this state, a law incorporating the Grand Lodge of North-Carolina: which by the Most Worshipful Grand Master is ordered to be recorded among the archives of Masonry, as a perpetual testimony of gratitude due from the Craft, to wit,

“An ACT to incorporate the Grand Lodge of North-Carolina.

“ Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of “ North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority
“ of the same, That the Most Worshipful Grand-Master,
“the

“ the Right Worshipful Deputy Grand Master, Wardens
 “ and Members, who are at present, or in future may be “ of the Grand Lodge of North-Carolina, be, and they are “ hereby constituted and declared to be a body corporate,
 “ under the name and title of the Grand Lodge of North-“ Carolina: and by such name shall have perpetual succef-
 “ sion and a common seal; and may sue and be sued, plead and “ be impleaded, acquire and transfer property; and pass all
 “ such bye laws and regulations as shall not be inconsistent
 “ with the constitution or laws of this State, or of the United “ States—any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

APRIL 14, A. L. 5798. A. D. 1798.

By order of the Most Worshipful Grand Master, a special Grand Lodge was called at the University of North-Carolina, for the express purpose of laying the foundation and corner stone of the principal college of that Seminary; and to join the Trustees of the University in one ejaculation to Heaven and the Great Architect of the Universe, for the auspices of his eternal goodness and wisdom, for the prosperity of learning, wisdom and virtue of that college—when were present: The Most Worshipful the Honourable WILLIAM R. DAVIE, Grand Master.

The Brothers, Officers and Members of several the Right Worshipful Lodges in this State under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, called here by order and summons of the Most Worshipful Grand Master for the purpose aforesaid.

The

The Lodge was opened in due form.

On motion, and seconded, Resolved, That this Grand Lodge proceed in the ancient and usual form of Masonry, under the direction of the Most Worshipful Grand Master, to the place appointed, to form a general procession with the Trustees, Faculty and Students of the University.—His Excellency the Governor of the State of North-Carolina, and the Honourable the Council of State, the Honourable the Judges of the Supreme Courts of Law and Equity, the Gentlemen of the Bar from the Superior Court of Hillsborough, the Rev. Mr. Bingham, A. M. and president of the academy in Chatham county, and the students of that seminary, with many gentlemen of respectability from different parts of North-Carolina, attending here for this express purpose.

The procession was then formed by all the Brothers aforesaid, clothed in masonic order, and in solemn form proceeded to the place appointed; when a general procession was again formed, in company with the Craft, by all the above mentioned gentlemen, under the direction and superintendence of the Most Worshipful WILLIAM R. DAVIE, Grand Master, and Major-General of the militia in this State, in the following order:

Architect,
 Mechanicks and Peasants,
 Grand Music,
 Teacher and Students of Chatham Academy,
 Students of the University,
 The Faculty of the University,
 The Gentlemen of the Bar,
 The Honourable the Judges,
 The Honourable the Council of State,
 His Excellency the Governor,
 The Trustees of the University,
 The Masonic Craft, with The Grand Master.

In which form the grand procession was conducted in a Masonic manner by the direction of the Craft. It consisted of several hundred persons. It began at the old college, and was made to the great road leading up the country by Nunn's tavern, thence up the said road near to Nunn's tavern,

tavern, and thence to the place appointed for the erection of the new and main college, where the order was reverfed, accompanied with mufic fuitable to the occafion.—Thofe gentlemen who made the proceffion, and were not of the Craft, formed themfelves and flood around the place on which the building is to ftand; when the fraternity, led by the moft Worfhipful Grand Mafter, continued their proceffion around the building three times, in a folemn manner; when they came to the foutheaft corner of the college, the Grand Mafter alone, attended by the chief officers and Craft, proceeded in the antient form of Mafonry to lay in a mafonic order the CORNER STONE—which was accordingly done.—After this, prayers by the Rev. Mr. Caldwell, A. M. and one of the faculty of the Univerfity, and a numerous audience of gentlemen and ladies, were offered up to Heaven, the throne of Grace and Omnifcience, imploring the benediction and fuperintendence of the God of knowledge and virtue to that foundation of future literature.—The proceffion was then again formed by order of the Grand Mafter, to the chapel; where a handsome and well compofed eulogy was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Caldwell, and many pieces of vocal and inftrumental mufic were performed as Hallelujahs, by perfons appointed for that purpofe.

The proceffion of the Craft was then conducted by the Grand Mafter to the lodge room, and after the bufinefs of the lodge was finished, it was adjourned in due form.

A copy from the records,

Atteft, ROBERT WILLIAMS, Grand Secretary.

Received from Stokes Lodge, No. 32. in Cabarrus county, a lift of their officers and members, together with a tranfcript of their proceedings: from Mount-Maria Lodge, No. 27. Iredell county, and Beaufort Lodge in Carteret county, by difpenfation, lifts of their officers and members, together with a tranfcript of their proceedings; which were feverally read and approbated, and ordered to be filed.

The Grand Master laid before the Grand Lodge, the visitations made by himself, and proxies appointed for that purpose, to the several Lodges under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge; which were severally read and approved of, and ordered to be filed among the archives of the Grand Lodge.

On motion, and seconded, Resolved, That a charter issue to certain Brothers in the county of Carteret, constituting a Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, by the name of Jerusalem, No. 35, to be holden at a place called the Straights, in said county, or near to a school house about that place. That the charter be directed to Isaiah Davis, Master; John Hill, Senior Warden; and Thomas Harris, Junior Warden: and that the Secretary of this Lodge fill up the said charter accordingly.

Whereas it is represented by a resolution of Panfophia Lodge, No. 25, Moore county, that the place at which the said Lodge is now holden, is inconvenient, and not calculated for the purposes designed, therefore it is resolved by this Grand Lodge, that the Master, Wardens and Brethren of the said Lodge, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to open and hold the said Lodge in future, at the house of Malcomb M'Neil, in the said county of Moore; and that the Grand Secretary enter this resolution as an endorsement on their charter.

Resolved, That B. James Turner and B. Matthew C. Whittaker be appointed a committee to enquire into the state of the treasury, and make a report thereof to the next meeting of this Lodge.

Resolved, That B. David Caldwell, and B. Oliver Fitts, be appointed a committee to investigate the accounts of the Grand Steward, and make a report thereof accordingly.

Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be directed to issue a dispensation to Brothers Thomas Carfon, Master; Hugh Campbell, Senior Warden; and Hugh Cunningham, Junior Warden, empowering them to open and hold a Lodge in the town of Lexington, in the county of Rowan.

The Lodge was closed in due form, to meet on the 16th inst. B SUNDAY,

S U N D A Y, December 16, 1798.

The Grand Lodge met according to adjournment.

The R. W. the Honourable Major-General Stephen W. Carney, Grand Marshal.

The R. W. Abfalom Tatum, late member in Congress, Grand Perfuivant.

The R. W. Thomas Pound, Grand Tyler.

Resolved, That the G. Secretary be, and he is hereby directed to make application to the several Lodges in this State which are now in a State of demise, for the books, papers, jewels, funds and furniture of the said Lodges respectively, agreeable to the 10th article of the constitution.

On motion, and seconded, Resolved, That Brothers Robert Williams, Richard W. Freear and Probate Collier, be appointed a committee to investigate the accounts of the Grand Lodge with the Kinton Lodge, St. John's, No. 4. and make a report thereof to the next meeting of this Grand Lodge.

On motion, and seconded, Resolved, That Brothers David Caldwell, Oliver Fitts and William Martin, be appointed a committee to form and devise some plan for erecting buildings in the city of Raleigh, necessary and conveniently adapted for the future meetings of this Grand Lodge, and a deposit for the records thereof; and make a report of such their plan to the next grand annual communication.

The committee appointed to investigate the State of the treasury, made their report; which was approved, and ordered to be filed.

The committee appointed to investigate the accounts of the Grand Steward, made their report; which was concurred with, and ordered to be filed.

The committee appointed to investigate the accounts existing between the Grand Lodge and Royal Edwin Lodge, No. 5. made their report; which was concurred with, and ordered to be filed.

Resolved,

Resolved, That Thomas Pound, Tyler of this Grand Lodge, be allowed the sum of twenty shillings for each meeting of the Grand Lodge which he heretofore attended, and for each meeting that he may hereafter attend. That the Treafurer pay the same to him accordingly on a certificate of the Grand Secretary to that effect, counterfigned by the Grand Mafter.

The Grand Lodge then adjourned fine die.
