The 2018 Charles Edward Cathey Masonic Scholarship

The Cathey Scholarship, funded by the Freemasons of North Carolina through the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, rewards high school seniors who have demonstrated academic achievement. The Grand Lodge Scholarship Committee selects recipients.

Guidelines for applicants

Eight scholarships of $1,000 each will be awarded for the 2018-2019 academic year.

To be considered for the scholarship, applicants must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0, or the equivalent average under the school's grading system, and be enrolled in an accredited North Carolina high school. The scholarship committee will consider factors including scholastic achievement, participation in extracurricular and civic activities, involvement in the community and personal recommendations.

Applicants must complete and sign the scholarship application and provide a sealed high school transcript, SAT and/or ACT scores and two letters of recommendation. One letter should be from a teacher or school official, and one should be from an unrelated person in the community. Letters are to be submitted with the application, in sealed envelopes with the writer's signatures across the seal.

Applicants must consent to an investigation of their academic records by the scholarship committee, and agree to be interviewed by the committee if required.

Recipients will be informed of their award on or about May 1, 2018. Award announcements will be sent to local news media and published in The North Carolina Mason.

Scholarship awards may be used only for tuition, fees, room, board and/or books charged by the university, college, community college or trade school in which recipient is enrolled. The scholarship payment will be made directly to the school for the recipient's account.

The scholarship is not renewable.

If a recipient fails to enroll in the coming academic year, or drops out of school, the recipient will be obligated to repay the Grand Lodge of North Carolina for any amount of the scholarship not refunded by the institution.

The Grand Lodge Scholarship Committee reserves the right to revoke any scholarship award, even after awards are announced, for misconduct or other reasons in its discretion.

Completed applications, including all required supporting documents, must be sent in one package and postmarked by Friday, March 11, 2018. Send applications to:
