

Joseph Montfort Medal History

- Colonel Joseph Montfort: Treasurer of the Province of North Carolina, Colonel of Colonial troops, patriot and Freemason; born in England in 1724; died in North Carolina, March 25, 1776. He was a member of Royal White Hart Lodge at Halifax, NC. On January 14, 1771 he was commissioned Provincial Grand Master of and for America, which authority he and his Deputy, Cornelius Harnett, exercised until the death of Montfort in 1776. His Grace, Henry Somerset, the fifth Duke of Beaufort, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of England, made this commission. During his tenure as Provincial Grand Master and prior to his death, Joseph Montfort chartered a number of the early lodges in North Carolina. Some of these lodges included; St. John's Lodge No. 3 at New Bern, Royal Edwin Lodge No. 5 at Windsor, Royal William Lodge No. 6 at Winton and Unanimity Lodge No. 7 at Edenton. The chartering of these lodges as well as a few others not chartered by Montfort occurred prior to the official formation of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina established in 1787. A complete Historical Review of Freemasonry in North Carolina can be found in the 1938 Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of A.F. and A.M. of North Carolina.
- Upon the recommendation of the Committee on Masonic Jurisprudence this special recognition was officially established on April 17, 1940 with the passing of a new proposed Code Regulation number 278. This new regulation read as follows:

The Grand Lodge hereby establishes a medal or emblem to be known as the "Joseph Montfort Medal", to be presented by the Grand Master to any Master Mason in good standing and recognized by this Grand Lodge who in the opinion of the Grand Master is deserving thereof because of distinguished service or achievement. Not more than three Joseph Montfort Medals shall be presented in any one term of a Grand Master. The cost of said medal shall be borne by the Grand Lodge.
- Immediately after the adoption of Regulation 278, Grand Master J. Edward Allen named the first three recipients; M.: W.: Melvin M. Johnson, PGM – Massachusetts, M.: W.: John H. Anderson, PGM and Grand Secretary of NC and R.: W.: Thomas J. Harkins, Grand Master elect of NC.

- Regulation 278 later became Reg. 88-01 with the adoption of the 1948 Code. The delegates passed an amendment to this regulation to increase the limit of annual recipients to five on April 18, 1961. This amendment was proposed during the 1960 Annual Communication but no action appeared to have been taken until 1961 when it was recorded in the Proceeding of the Grand Lodge as being adopted.
- At the Annual Communication of 1966 an amendment to Reg. 88-01 was proposed to change the annual limit of recipients back to a maximum of three. The delegates passed this amendment on April 20, 1966.
- Since the inception of the Montfort Award only one person has presented more than five awards. This occurred in April 1950 and 1951. Due to the passing of M.: W.: Wilkens P. Horton on February 1, 1950, Deputy Grand Master / Acting Grand Master R.: W.: Wallace E. Caldwell presented awards to three recipients at the 1950 Annual Communication. The following year M.: W.: Wallace E. Caldwell presented this distinguished award to three more recipients at the April 1951 Annual Communication. It is not clear in the Proceeding of 1950 if M.: W.: Wilkens P. Horton had revealed his choices prior to his passing or if these selections were in fact the choices of the Acting Grand Master.
- Due to the unexpected passing of M.: W.: Nelson B. Banks on January 2, 1982, there were no Joseph Montfort Medal awards presented in 1982. This is the only year since the inception of this special recognition that no awards were presented.
